

Designed by Urban Forest Initiative, 2019 for African Cemetery No. 2, Lexington, Kentucky

Green ash
(Fraxinus pennsylvanica)

Black walnut
(Juglans nigra)

Redbud
(Cercis canadensis)

Black cherry
(Prunus serotina)

Hackberry
(Celtis occidentalis)

American sycamore
(Platanus occidentalis)

White pine
(Pinus strobus)

Tulip poplar
(Liriodendron tulipifera)

Find these trees during your visit!

East 7th Street

Benefits of the 148 cemetery trees to the community

Shade and Beauty

5,294 pounds of carbon stored per year

32,742 gallons of stormwater intercepted per year.

Replacement cost
of trees: $587,431

African Cemetery No 2, Inc.
PO Box 54874
Lexington, KY 40555-4874

Contributions for ongoing maintenance and continued restoration are welcome and appreciated. African Cemetery No. 2, Inc. is a tax-exempt non profit 501 (c)(13) corporation.

Photos: © Allan Hetzel, Board Member

Adopt-a-Tree

You will need:

- Phone/tablet
- Measuring tape
- ufi.ca.uky.edu/adopt-a-tree

Why?

- Simple and free
- Learn to measure a tree
- Fun group or team-building exercise
- Calculate benefits of your favorite tree

Design by Urban Forest Initiative2019 for African Cemetery No. 2, Inc
uki@uky.edu

The Trees of African Cemetery No. 2

A Self-Guided Walking Tour

419 East Seventh Street
Lexington, Kentucky

www.africancemeteryno2.org